Problem Points:

"Listen up, fashion lovers! During the COVID-19 pandemic, we have all experienced a change in the way we shop. We have been forced to shift to online shopping due to travel restrictions and lockdowns. However, online shopping has not always been an easy experience. We understand that there are many challenges, such as a clunky website, confusing layout, difficult checkouts, and a sometime boring interface.

We're here to help you better navigate these changes. We are committed to providing a better, safer and more convenient online shopping experience. We strive to make online shopping a reliable alternative during these difficult times.

Solution:

Imagine this, an online clothing store that is as intuitive to use as your favorite social media app. Yes, it's that smooth! We're talking about a shopping experience that's seamless, you won't want to leave. Our project titled "Improving Features and Revitalizing Jumpstart Website to Match Post-COVID-19 User Preferences" is all about making online fashion shopping truly enjoyable.

We introduce features that will blow your mind (in a good way of course):

- A website that is not just a shop but also a fashion showcase.
- Very smooth browsing experience, as you can browse easily and comfortably.
- Personalized outfit recommendations that will turn you into a fashion icon in no time, with an incredible variety of outfits.
- We provide various types of models and well-known brands so that it can make it easier for you to choose the best choice.
- Lightning fast checkout process, multi payment methods, so you can conquer the world of fashion again.
